

NYSCSS

New York State
Council For The Social Studies

NYS4A

New York State
Social Studies Supervisory Association

80th Annual Convention LIBERTYCON 2018 March 8-10, 2018 Albany Capital Center—Albany, NY

Join your friends and colleagues from across the state at the 80th Annual NYSCSS/NYS4A Convention “LIBERTYCON 2018: Embracing Equity in a Global Society” in partnership with The Underground Railroad History Project. With dozens of sessions across three days, there will be something for everyone. Whether you're a 7-12 social studies teacher, an elementary teacher, an administrator, a librarian or a literacy specialist, there will be a session for you!

Conference Highlights:

- James W. Loewen – author of Sundown Towns: A Hidden Dimension of American Racism and Lies My Teacher Told Me
- Cheryl Wills – author, television anchor, reporter, author of Die Free: A Heroic Family Tale
- Dinah Zike - author, educational consultant, and lecturer, developer of Dinah’s Foldables®
- New York State Education Department – Curriculum and Assessment Updates

Convention sessions will include activities for:

- 7-12 Social Studies Teachers
- Elementary School Teachers
- Library Media Specialists
- School Administrators
- Pre-service Teachers
- Staff Developers
- Higher Education Faculty

James Loewen

Cheryl Wills

Dinah Zike

REGISTER NOW!

<http://nyscss.org/convention/register-2/>

A three day event including over 75 sessions! Conference stands and session highlights to include:

Social Studies K-12 Curriculum & Instruction:

- New Visions US History - 3.0
- Integrating Primary Sources through Local History Research Activities
- Inquiry-Based Curriculum: A Shifting Mindset in Elementary Social Studies Instruction
- Students Rights 2.0 - First Amendment Freedom in the Digital Age
- RUMBLE: Native Americans in Popular Music and the Classroom
- How Inquiry in the Primary Classroom Brought About Some Surprising Results
- Baseball - A Microcosm of US Civil Rights History
- A Freshman Foundation: Skills in the SS Classroom

NYSED Social Studies Framework and Assessment:

- “Enduring” the “Issues” of the New Framework for Social Studies: One District's Experience
- Infusing the Practices: Grades 4 and 7-8
- Impacting Student Writing and Thinking: From the Perspective of Big History Project Teachers
- Inquiry in the Social Studies Classroom
- NYSED Updates
- Understanding the Global History and Geography II CRQ

Technology:

- Technology Lounge all three days
- Effective and Stressless ways to integrate Tech into your lessons
- Resource Smackdown!
- Digital Breakouts
- Flipping Your Classroom

Literacy:

- Interrogate the Source! Strategies to Support Sourcing and Reliability for Middle and High School Students
- News Literacy for Informed Civic Participation
- For the Love of Humanities: A DBQ Approach to working with Primary Sources and Literary Texts
- Recognizing Fake News; Encouraging civics minded citizens in our media obsessed world

Saturday Highlights:

- 6 Clinics – including Smithsonian National Museum of the American Indian, Teaching the Arab-Israeli Conflict & Peace Process, Teaching Civics in a Digital Age, Nearpod and Tech Talks
- NYSED clinic on Scoring the Global History & Geography Enduring Issues Essay
- NYSCSS/NYS4A Convention Attendees are invited to participate in the workshops presented by the Underground Railroad History Project on Friday (an evening shuttle bus will be provided to the Cultural Education Center) and Saturday at the Albany Capital Center for no additional cost.

NYSCSS/NYS4A is recognized by the NYS Education Department as an approved sponsor of CTLE for Professional Classroom Teachers, School Leaders, and Level III Teaching Assistants.